

Aerocube 6

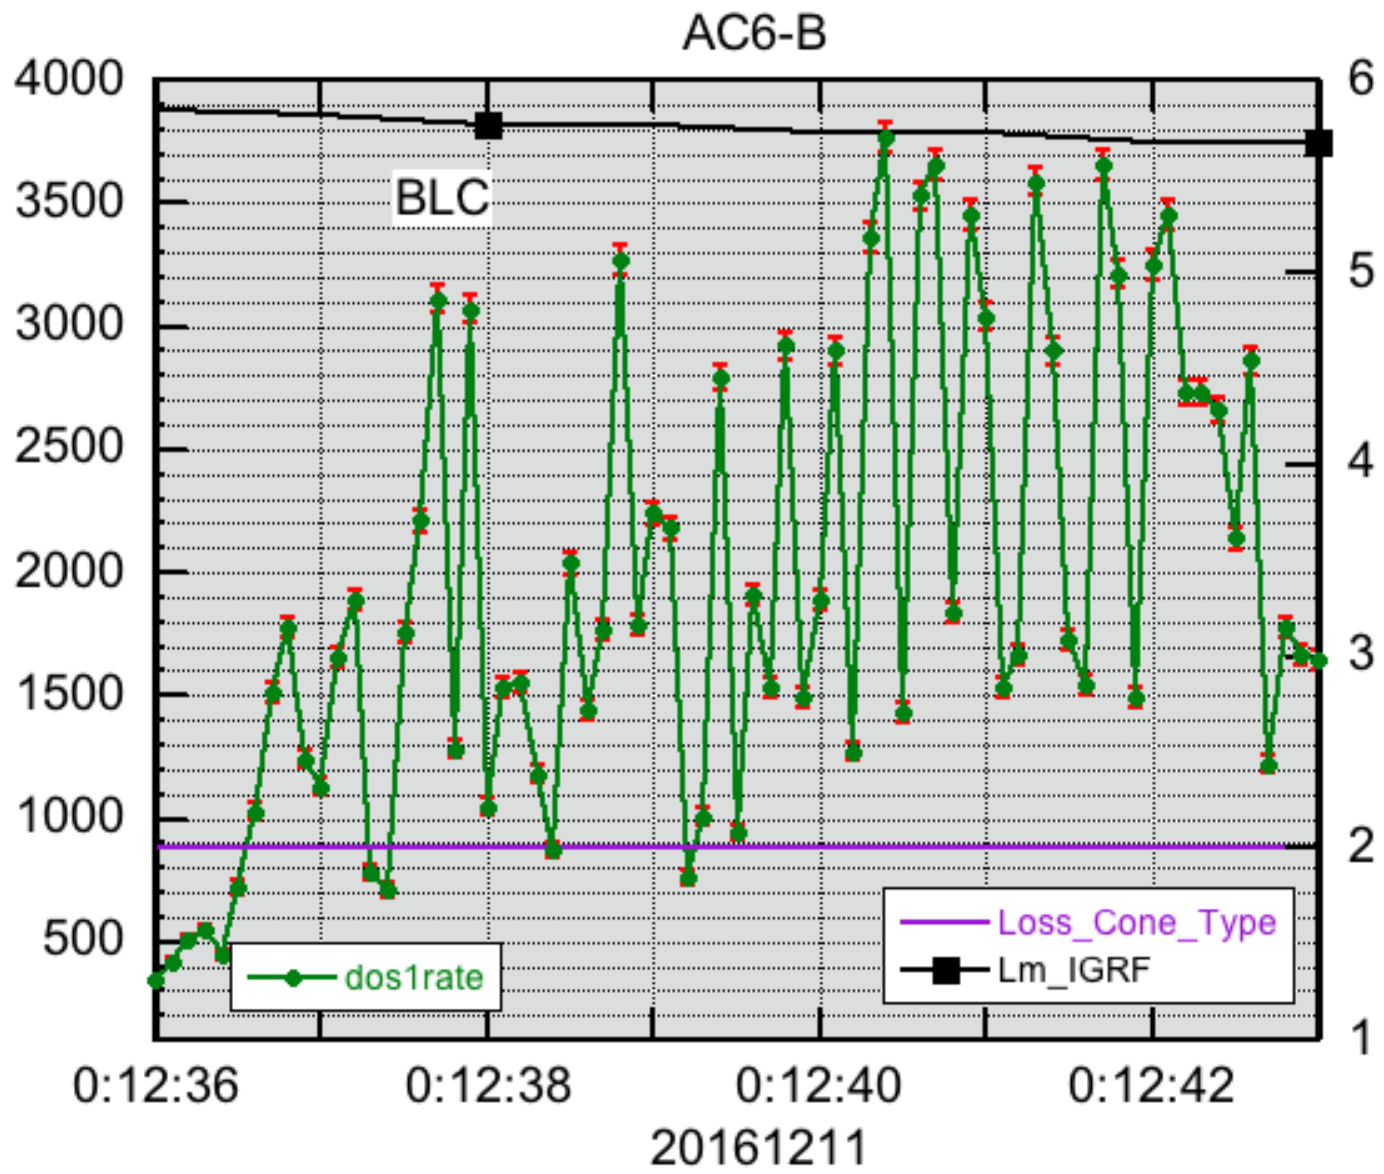

Current Status

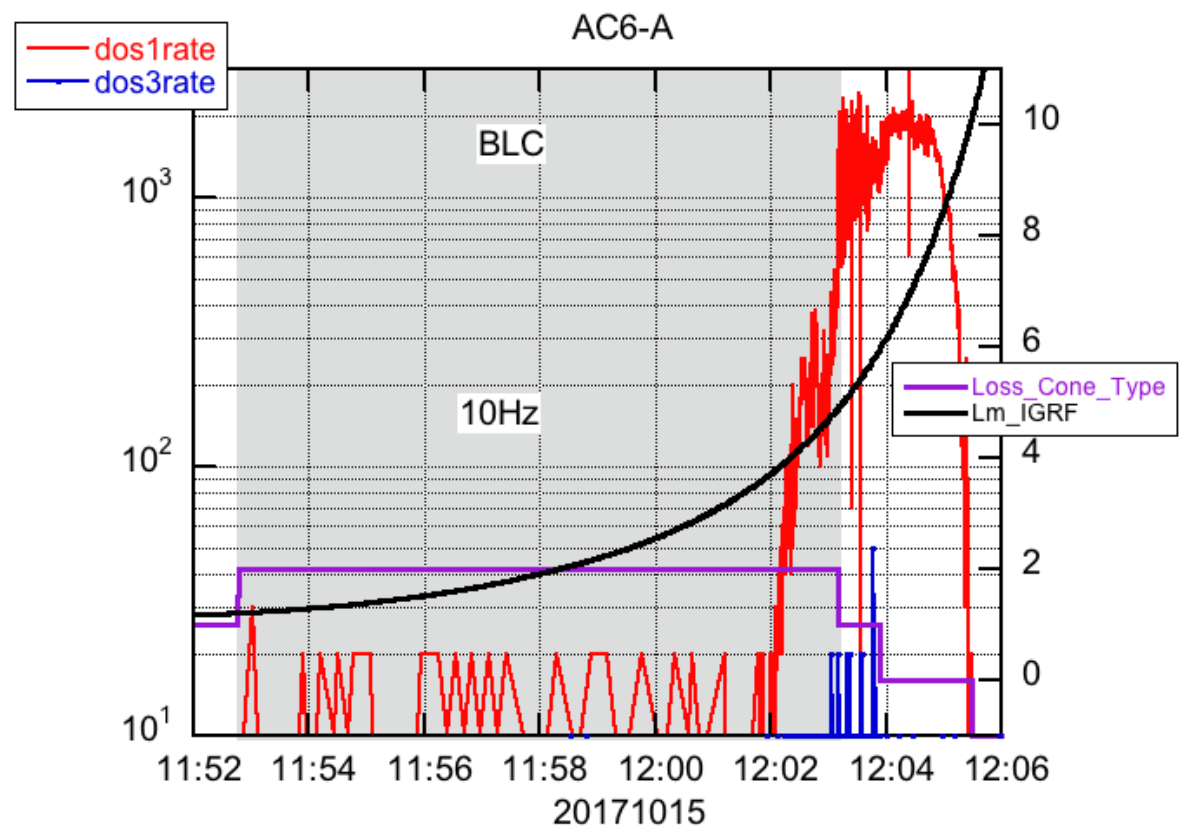

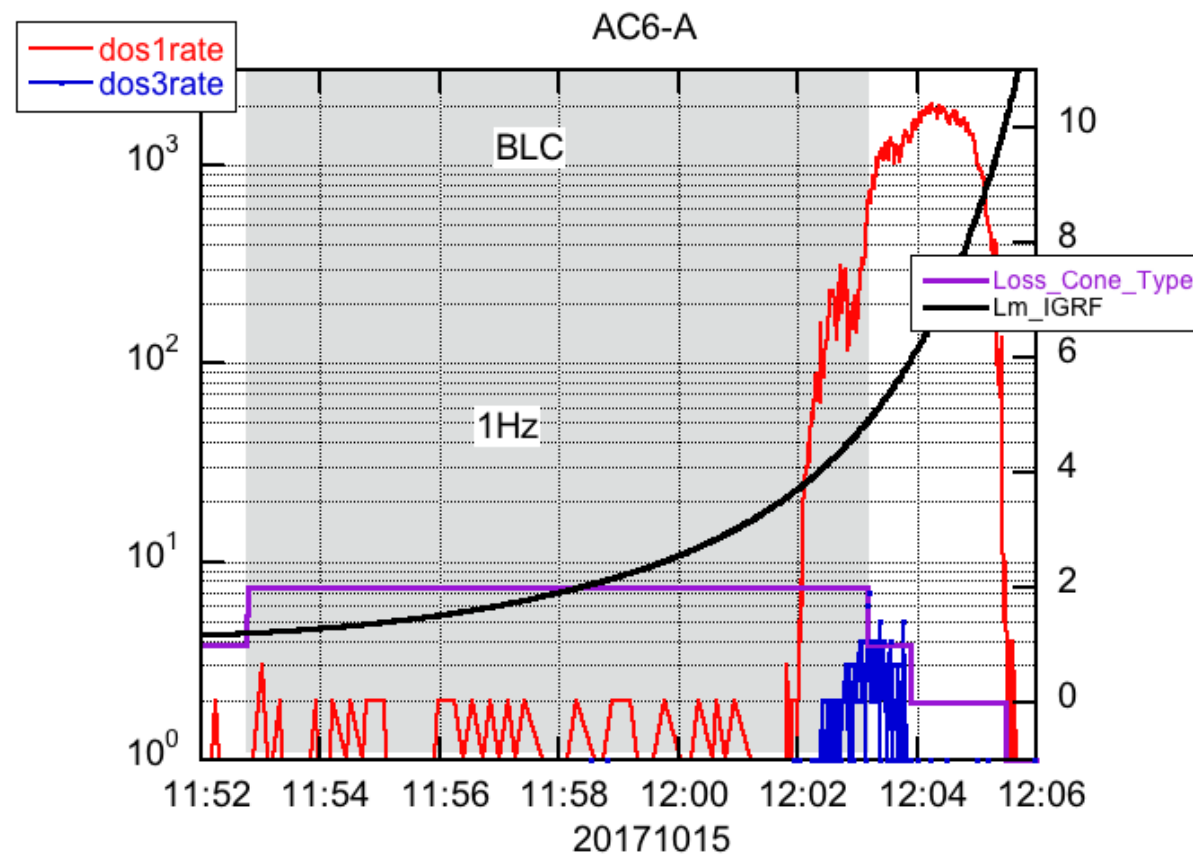

- AC6-A continues to function in a nominal fashion
- AC6-B power system seriously degraded in late June and it became impossible to turn on critical systems. The AC6-B mission is over.

These “precipitation curtains” have been seen many hundreds of times, they are ubiquitous

Data Status

- The AC6 data base is openly available, hosted by APL. Any questions about the data please email Paul O'Brien or Bern Blake
